Dear Oak Grove Band Family,

Every student and parent of the Oak Grove Band program is responsible for reading this handbook and knowing the information found within. It is also available virtually. You can find this handbook on our website at www.oakgrovebands.org and their class's Google Classroom.

Additionally, on your child's Google Classroom there will be a Google Form to fill out that will register your email for our band database, CHARMS. This must be submitted online no later than Friday, August 12th, 2022. Please take the time to complete this with your (the parent/guardian's) email.

Thank you so much for your attention to all of this very important information. We suggest keeping it on file with you in a safe place for future reference. As a staff, we strive to keep you updated and informed on what is coming up in your child's band experience and will notify you via Google Classroom, School Status, and email regularly.

Please feel free to contact any of the directors throughout the year if you have any questions or concerns. We do ask that you direct your emails to the band director that is over your child's specific instrument class.

Because we are split between two campuses, email is the best form of communication. Emails are checked multiple times a day and will be responded to by the next school day. Thanks!!*

Band Hall Rules for Appropriate Behavior

Each student and parent/guardian should familiarize themselves with the following to avoid any possible misunderstandings.

- Each student is expected to adhere to all OGMS and LCSD policies as outlined in the Parent/Student Handbook.
- Students are expected to embody the phrase “respectful, responsible, and ready to learn”.
- Students will abide by each director’s specified expectations when entering the room. The band hall is a special place all students must respect when band class is taking place.

Band Class Procedures

- Enter the rehearsal hall in a quiet, courteous, and orderly fashion
- Students must be seated with instruments assembled and proper class materials evident on minute following the tardy bell. Students will check the board for the day’s class agenda and arrange materials as indicated
- Students will not play instruments without permission
- The band director will dismiss the students from class

Consequences

For students displaying inappropriate behaviors:

1. Receive a verbal warning
2. Student-teacher conference
3. Parent contact via School Status or short form to administration
4. Long form to administration
5. Can be removed from the band program if necessary

Supplies Needed for Band

In order to ensure the best chances of success in band class, all students are required to have the following everyday:

- Have a quality instrument in playing condition every day.
- Have the provided band binder and sheet protectors with all materials
- Pencil
- Name-tag on your instrument case
- Tradition of Excellence, Book 1 (Red) for YOUR instrument
- There are additional materials that may be required based on your child's instrument (i.e: reeds, valve oil, etc). Please see the separate provided sheet with the information specific to your child's instrument.

Grading Policy

Performances

All Students are expected to attend all performances that are marked on the calendar as "Required Events." Each Performance is considered a major test grade, like a group project. See the OGMS Band Calendar included in this handbook for specific dates and times. More details will be sent home prior to each event.

Mastery Assessments

Mastery Assessments will be conducted each Nine Weeks. These skills-based assessments are a major test grade but also act as a "Check Point" for student progress. Students must demonstrate each of the Mastery Assessment skills at grade level achievement by the end of the school year to enroll in band the following year. Students will be given opportunities each 9 weeks to make up or "pass off" any previous 9-week's skills not achieved.

Major Tests & Daily Grades

Additionally students will be given smaller daily or weekly assignments that will count as daily or major grades depending on the assignment. These will be communicated regularly by your child's specific director.
